“

First of all, thank you for all the hard work and effort you put into making our events such a success. It was fabulous to have you onsite and to work with you.

Welcome to Oxygen Event Services

At Oxygen Event Services, our mission is to transform your event into an unforgettable experience. As one of London's leading event production agencies, we leverage two decades of expertise and cutting-edge technology to create memorable events that captivate and inspire.

Our dedicated team of project managers excel in designing bespoke lighting, sound, scenery, AV, and logistical solutions tailored to your unique vision. We are committed to delivering experiences that not only meet but exceed your expectations. With a client-centred approach, meticulous attention to detail, and a talent for managing complex logistics, we ensure every aspect of your event is flawlessly executed.

We take pride in our ability to understand and fulfil the unique needs of our clients, from world-leading brands to delighted brides. At Oxygen, we are passionate about creating exceptional events that resonate with your guests and leave a lasting impression.
